Information We Collect

- Full name
- Email address
- Phone number
- Billing information
- Passport or travel information (when required)
- IP address
- Browser and device information
- Cookies and analytics data

How We Use Your Information

Provide services, process payments, communicate with users, improve the website, prevent fraud, and comply with legal obligations.

Sharing Information

Your personal data may be shared with:

- Payment providers, to process transactions;
- Cloud hosting providers, to store and operate our systems;
- Government authorities, where required by law;
- Legal authorities, as required to comply with applicable legal obligations.

International Data Transfers

Green Case LLC works with clients located in different countries. As a result, your personal data may be transferred to, and processed in, countries other than your own, including the United States. Where such transfers occur, we take reasonable steps to ensure your data continues to receive an appropriate level of protection.

Data Retention

We retain personal data only for as long as necessary to provide our services and to comply with applicable legal, accounting, or reporting requirements. Once this period has passed, personal data is securely deleted or anonymized.

Data Security

We implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect personal data.

Your Rights

Users may request access, correction, deletion, withdrawal of consent, and copies of their data where applicable. To request a copy of your data, to correct your data, or to request deletion of your data, please contact us at privacy@greencasellc.com.

Governing Law

This Privacy Policy is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida, without regard to its conflict of law principles.
